more fastfasterless fastmore faster India's Super Teachers for all govt, exams Under One Roof Enroll For Free Now The correct answer is Option 1 i.e. more fast When two gualities of the England fast bowler i.e. 'fast' and 'accurate' for such comparison we will use comparative degree (more + positive degree adjective). .: Use 'more fast' rather than wise. Correct- She is more pretty than wise. Complete Sentence: Jofra Archer, the England fast bowler, is more fast than accurate. put up withput in withput in withput in withput in without down toput up against India's #1 Learning Platform Start Complete Exam Preparation Daily Live MasterClasses Practice Question Bank Mock Tests & Quizzes Get Started for Free Download App Trusted by 3,06,24,762+ Students as opposed to what I have saiddespite what I have said Option 2: despite what I have said The correct answer is option 2 i.e. despite what I have said "Having said that" it is a signal that they are going to say something which will contrast or disagree with what they said a moment ago. Let's see an example to develop more clarity: Their work has been fairly good. Having said that, I still think there's room for improvement. It can be a simple sentence or a part of a compound sentence. Main clause: It gives a complete meaning and can stand alone as a complete meaning. Explanation Rules of clauses: According to the rule, when main clause is in the past or past perfect tense, the subordinate clause must also be in the past or past perfect tense. So, here past form of verb will be used. Given sentence will become: "After Rajendra Chola returned from his voyage to Indonesia, he wished to visit the temple in Thanjavur." India's #1 Learning Platform Start Complete Exam Preparation Daily Live MasterClasses Practice Question Bank Mock Tests & Quizzes Get Started for Free Download App Trusted by 3,06,24,762+ Students The error lies in part II of the sentence as the preposition 'to' does not fit after the word 'ordered.' It is grammatically incorrect. A person orders someone thus it should read as: 'The professor ordered the students to go out of the class.' India's #1 Learning Platform Start Complete Exam Preparation Daily Live MasterClasses Practice Question Bank Mock Tests & Quizzes Get Started for Free Download App Trusted by 3,06,24,762+ Students The correct answer is option 2) The error lies in part B of the question. Explanation: The expression 'it is high time' (and not 'it is highly time') to express our impatience about things that have not happened yet or to express our present or future wishes. Examples: Ram and Reema have been engaged now for over five years. It is high time they got married! It is high time we bought a new car. (and not it is high time we buy a new car.) Correct sentence- I cannot even boil an egg. It is high time I learnt to cook! The expression 'it is high time' uses the past tense to express the wish that something should be done and to do that something, it is already a bit late. India's #1 Learning Platform Start Complete Exam Preparation Daily Live MasterClasses Practice Question Bank Mock Tests & Quizzes Get Started for Free Download App Trusted by 3,06,24,762+ Students She had a terrible time at the party. She had a terrific time at the party. She had a terrific time at the party. She had a terrific time at the party. She had a terrifying time at the party. The given sentence uses the word 'enjoy' which has a positive connotation and is followed by the adverb 'immensely', which means to a large extent. All of the options except option 3 use adjectives with negative connotations - terrible, horrible, terrifying - to describe the subject's experience and and are hence, incorrect. 'Educate' is completely irrelevant and 'exert' is to apply a force that is again not a suitable synonym. 'Extend' is making larger which is not synonymous to educe. Thus, the correct answer is 'extract' which means to take out something with effort. Hence, option C is the correct one. India's #1 Learning Platform Start Complete Exam Preparation Daily Live MasterClasses Practice Question Bank Mock Tests & Quizzes Get Started for Free Download App Trusted by 3,06,24,762+ Students the security guard at a university a security guard at the university a security guard at a university a security guard at the university a security guard at a university a security guard at the university a security guard at a university a security guard at the university The sentence is talking about the Municipal Commissioner's previous profession. There cannot be only one security guard. Since the location where he used to work is specific, definite article 'the' needs to precede it. Hence the correct option satisfying this criteria is option 2. India's #1 Learning Platform Start Complete Exam Preparation Daily Live MasterClasses Practice Question Bank Mock Tests & Quizzes Get Started for Free Download App Trusted by 3,06,24,762+ Students The correct answer is option 4 i.e. Mr. X fell down and was losing consciousness Let's look at the following points- The tense used in the first clause is the present progressive(continuous) tense i.e. 'Mr. X fell down and was losing consciousness'. Now, look at the following points- When the simple past tense and the past continuous tense are used together in a sentence, it shows that the action referred to by the simple past tense takes place somewhere in the middle of the past continuous action. For e.g.- I was working when someone knocked at the door. Explanation Losing consciousness is an instantaneous action which cannot go on for a period of time. There is a definite 'point' where the person falls unconscious. Hence, we may conclude that in this sentence. While trying to collect an envelope from under the table, Mr. X fell down and lost consciousness. India's #1 Learning Platform Start Complete Exam Preparation Daily Live MasterClasses Practice Question Past - Woke. Bank Mock Tests & Quizzes Get Started for Free Download App Trusted by 3,06,24,762+ Students is, wasare, areis, arewere, was The correct answer is option 3- is, are The given question is on the singular form. Thus, 'is' is the correct fit for the blank. In the second sentence, the conjunction phrase 'as well as' has been used. It is followed by a verb agreeing with the first subject of the sentence- i.e. the subject present before the phrase. Thus, 'is' is the correct fit for the blank is 'are', as it agrees with the first subject of the sentence- i.e. the subject present before the phrase. events to have occurred in the past. Thus we cannot consider any verb in the past tense for any of the blanks. India's #1 Learning Platform Start Complete Exam Preparation Daily Live MasterClasses Practice Question Bank Mock Tests & Quizzes Get Started for Free Download App Trusted by 3,06,24,762+ Students The context of the sentence is asking a person who has been deprived of something because of a theft. The word to be used to fill the blank is 'lose' which means to be deprived of something. 'Loose' is a noun that means the process of losing someone or something. Eg: He suffered tremendous loss in his business. The report was useless to them because there were no needed information, it was not real useful to them. Since the report lacked the needed information, it was of no use to them. Out of all the given sentences, only the sentences, only the sentences in option 1 is entirely correct with respect to grammar and usage. Here are the errors in the other sentences, only the sentences of the sentences of the sentences of the sentence in option 2: The verb 'were' should actually be 'was' since the subject 'information' is singular. Option 3: The word 'real' should instead be 'really' an adverb to describe the adjective 'useful'. Option 4: 'Would not had been' is an ungrammatical tense construction. Hence, the correct answer is option 1. India's #1 Learning Platform Start Complete Exam Preparation Daily Live MasterClasses Practice Question Bank Mock Tests & Quizzes Get Started for Free Download App Trusted by 3,06,24,762+ Students committo commitcommited committing The correct answer is 'commit'. Key Points Dare is both a main verb and a semi-modal verb. Dare can mean 'challenge somebody'. With this meaning, it is a main verb and requires an object. Any verb that follows it is in the to-infinitive. Example: Some snakes can bite but I dare you to hold this big snake. Dare also means 'to be brave enough or rude enough to do something'. With this meaning it is used as a semi-modal verb followed by an infinitive without to. Example: No one dare go there. The context of 'Dare' in the given sentence is 'brave enough or rude enough to do something'. 'to'. Therefore, the correct answer is option 1. The correct sentence is: 'Dare commit mistakes.'
